Legal Mediation and Puppy Contracts with Attorneys David Feldman & Norman Sherman

Massachusetts Attorneys David Feldman and Norman Sherman have experience in contracts, trusts and estates, and mediation. They are passionate about animals and are now applying their extensive legal and negotiation skills to help support animals and their owners.

Most breeders use contracts for puppy sales based on samples of other breeders' contracts... but often wonder if the language is correct, what protections are important, what is actionable in the event of a conflict, what to consider if the buyer and seller are in different states, and what language should be avoided. What to do if you already have a conflict and what to consider if you are showing or breeding.

This is a great opportunity to hear from those in the know!
