

SUPPORT HB1845 – An Act Relative to Protecting
Dogs and Cats from Slaughter
Rep. David Robertson (D)

Referred to Joint Committee on the Judiciary

This bill fills in a gap that was left a bit vague by the federal bill passed in December 2018. The federal bill “Dog and Cat Meat Prohibition Act” which was signed into law as a provision of the Farm Bill 1 makes it a federal offense to slaughter, trade and import / export dogs and cats for human consumption, a practice that was previously legal in 44 states. This federal bill makes it illegal to generate dog or cat meat for human consumption. HB1845 specifically prohibits the consumption of dog and cat meat in the commonwealth an area that is not specifically prohibited by the federal law.
